JERSEY EXCITED BY WET PLOT CHARGES

Passale Prosecutor Calls Anti-Saloon League Talk a Lie.

ROUNDUP IN HUDSON

Dry Up Atlantic City, Says Official.

New Jersey officials were excited yesterday over the charge made by Samuel Wilson, agent of the Anti-Saloon League, who declared on Friday that a conspiracy exists to make the State the Priday morning. wettest in the United States in violation

While some State office holders as responsible for the enforcement of the Federal prohibition law and therefore unconcerned with Mr. Wilson's charges, look into the alleged conspiracy and to

One of them, Munson Force, Arsistant Grand Jury.'

Herbert Voorhees, assistant to County Prosecutor Gaskill of Atlantic county, trian, who is responsible for the enforcement of the State laws in Atlantic City, said of the matter: "Isn't it really a thing or the Federal authorities to attend to? The State law has been superseded by the Federal law. I cannot see where there could be any conspiracy on the part of county or State officials to wink operating with the Federal people in their efforts to make Atlantic City dry, "Nobody has ever suggeste such a thing. I don't think they are. I don't think they are called upon to do

He also wrote a letter to Mr. Wilson in which he said: "I note that you have WILL sacrifice new year round cottage, type bmitted to the Federal authorities evidence which you and your friends have btained against certain saloonkeepers. If you will submit to me the evidence you now have and any you may add, I will promptly submit it to the Grand Jury of this county, the only course I can pursue in regard to it."

United States Commissioner McCabe in Brooklyn vacated yesterday a search warrant issued against the premises occupied by Herman Ehler, a saloon pro prietor of 323 Washington street. Federal agents wanted to search the place ecause "amber colored fluid" was being lispensed there. The Commissioner held that this information was too indefinite warrant a search,

United States Commisioner McGoldrick held John Jules, another saloon keeper, of 1991 Atlantic avenue in $1,000 ball

Aliens Now Crowd Out Veterans in Sea Service.

As a result of recent legislation barring aliens from acting as officers on American ships, many aliens are becoming American citizens, according to Dr. George Sidney Webster, secretary of the American Seamen's Friend Society of 76 Wall street Dr. Webster said yesterday that many native Americans and naturalized citi-zens of long standing are being crowded out by the new citizens. The motives of the recent citizens are little more than mercenary, he said, as they were

Promotes Beauty Of Skin and Hair

Cuticura Soap when used for every-day toilet purposes not only cleanses, purifies and beautifies but it prevents many little skin troubles if assisted by occasional use of Cuticura Ointment to soothe and heal. Cuticura Talcum imparts a delicate lasting fragrance leaving the skin sweet and whole-

not eager to become Americans until the gislation barring them was passed. "Meanwhile the splendid young me graduated from the New York Nautical School find themselves in competition with these new citizens for berths," Dr. | Webster said. "However, as our new merchant marine becomes established I do not doubt but what these men will be well placed. Perhaps more serious is the effect this hasty naturalization may have on the thousands of American able seamen who are worthy of promotion into the officers' ranks.'

JERRY THE WOLF' HELD AS SLAYER

Police Not Supposed to Help Admits Recent Fight With Alfredo Grassiano.

> "Jerry the Wolf," whoat real name is said to be Jerry Ruberto, was held yesterday afternoon by Magistrate George W. Simpson in the Tombs Court on an affidavit charging him with being suspected of the murder of Alfredo Gras-siano, the gangster who was slain with a double barrelled shotgun in front of a restaurant at 87 Kenmare street early John F. Joyce, Assistant District Attorney in charge of the local homicide bureau, who had questioned Jerry in While some State office holders as-the morning, was in favor of having him umed the attitude that they were not released from custody, as he was convinced the prisoner had nothing to do with the killing. The Magistrate, however, did not approve of this, and told Detective Louis Campenosi of the police instructed their subordinates to Italian squad to draw up the affidavit. to the alleged conspiracy and to Jerry admitted having a fight with Grassiano in the restaurant three days before the killing, and admitted that Prescutor of Passaic county stated Grassiano had smashed a bottle over publicly, "the charge that there is a his head. He denied knowledge of the sale of intoxicating liquors murder. According to the police Jerry in Passaile county is a lie. If this fellow Wilson has any evidence, instead of shouting it all over town it is his sault. He is awaiting trial for an affair uty as a citizen to take it before the at Coney Island last month, when he is alleged to have fired several revolver shots from an automobile at a pedes-

Loses Extra Fingers and Toes. Paul Anderson, 11 years old, a negro was admitted to Bellevue Hospital yes terday to have two extra toes and two superfluous fingers removed. The amputations are not expected to result seriously. The physicians said the boy has twelve toes and twelve fingers, the small toe and small finger having been duplicated by freakish mother Nature.

REAL ESTATE-OUT OF CITY.

New Jersey-Sale or Rent Prosecutor Pierre P. Garvan of Hudson county sent letters to the police chiefs of thirteen municipalities in his jurisdiction calling their attention to Mr.
Wilson's complaint and demanding that they take effective measures at once to stop the illicit liquor traffic.

He also wrote a letter to Mr. Wilson
